

Special Education Advisory Committee
Extended Campus
211 Third Street Suite A
Agenda
November 13, 2014

Introductions 12 people in attendance

Update on Parent networking Event

- Update on parent network meeting; about 20 parents showed up, more of a social aspect
- Reminder to send out next message to 917 parents
- Discussion about locations that had separate rooms for meeting: Fireside in Rosemount and Celts were places to check out.

Update on Facebook Page

- Heath discussed background on our Facebook panning page Discussion about using it as an informational page
- Carla will get a SEAC email address for the SEAC
- SEAC Facebook page will need to be maintained by parent SEAC members and have an administrator to keep updated
- A past suggestion was to have administrator be a rotating position - feedback was that gets a little tricky There is representation on SEAC from a principal and others can be invited as needed
- Larisa Jackson volunteered to be the administrator for the Facebook page

Update on Webpage

New Website; - how to get to our page...

- Farmington Home Page > Learning > Special Education > Special Education Advisory Council
- Looking for input on structure and content of website - both for SEAC pages and general website content
- M. Sauser - likes the resources link and is wondering if resources can be added to that area
- Tori Klima mentioned the idea of a calendar as a great resource
- Angie Field mentioned that the Dakota County Library has a good example of what a calendar can look like

Information about Town Hall Meeting sponsored by Autism Speaks

Carla shared Autism Speaks resource - talk about how to get the information out e.g. Facebook Page, calendar on website with links for the resource, on the website and have it updated monthly

Other agenda items

Carla shared Therapy OPS resource - with Sensory Smart Santa

Next Meeting:

December 18th 6:30-7:30 at Extended Campus and anyone interested in helping put Facebook page together can come early to the next meeting at 6:00pm
